Exchange Programme "Supporting families, children and youths in their environment"

University of Applied Sciences Emden/Leer (Germany) | Faculty of Social Work and Health | Spring or Summer Term 2027

In the summer semester of 2027, we are offering at least 8 courses in English, from which you can put together your own individual course programme. At least 7 courses are in the field of social work and health and 1 course is a German language course.

(Please note the requirements for credit transfer at your home university in advance and discuss your choice with the International Coordinator.)

course title	lecturer	course evaluation	credit points (ECTS)
Expanding Educational Access through Theater - A Theater lab for Fields of early Child Education	Miriam Weinzierl	graded (or only pass/fail)	3
International University Week	Astrid Hübner	pass or fail	3
Project Development and Practice	Carsten Bunk	graded (or only pass/fail)	4
Press and Public Relations in Social, Education and Health Sectors (online course)	Insa Segebade	graded	3
Creative Writing in Social and Educational Work (online course)	Insa Segebade	graded	3
Potential traumatic life events and health across the life course	Jutta Lindert	graded	4
Counselling and Interviewing in Social Work	Inga Henn	pass or fail	2
The historical development of Social Cultural Work	Julien Schwarz	graded	3
German Language Course	tba	graded	5
Total possible ECTS			30

For further information about our exchange programme (course description, etc.) and living conditions in Emden, please visit our website. If you have any further questions, please contact our International Coordinator Catherine Herbin.

We look forward to hearing from you!

University of Applied Sciences
HOCHSCHULE EMDEN·LEER

Catherine Herbin (International Coordinator) | Faculty of Social Work and Health | incomings.sag@hs-emden-leer.de | +49 4921 807 1261